Hardship Withdrawal Provisions	Hardship Withdrawal Provisions: Hardship withdrawals are only permitted to the extent a participant demonstrates that the reason for the hardship withdrawal complies with the applicable requirements under the Internal Revenue Code and that such hardship imposes an immediate and heavy financial burden upon such participant. Hardship withdrawals are limited to bona fide financial emergencies. A hardship withdrawal cannot be applied for until all other options have been exhausted. These options include: insurance, reasonable liquidation of the participant's assets, cessation of elective deferrals to any retirement account, or other distributions or loans from the employer's plan(s) or a commercial loan. Note that distributions from the plan may be subject to state and federal taxes and distributions prior to age 59 1/2 may result in an additional 10% IRS penalty. Amounts Available for Withdrawal: If you have a qualified hardship, you may withdraw the amount necessary to meet the need created by the hardship, as long as the amount withdrawn does not exceed your total employee deferrals less any earnings. The total amount of the withdrawal cannot exceed the value of your deferral account. A hardship withdrawal disqualifies you from making deferral contributions to any 403(b) retirement account for 6 months after withdrawal. Upon approval of the hardship, your salary reduction agreement will be canceled.

403(b) Hardship Documentation Guidelines

General	The Plan and IRS define certain circumstances that can qualify for a hardship distribution from the Plan if you have exhausted all other sources of assets including loans. These are the only circumstances under which you may qualify for a hardship under the Plan. Evidence of the hardship must be provided to document both the nature of the hardship and the amount of the hardship. As a general rule, documentation should be current, dated, and as descriptive as possible.
Eligible Hardship Reasons:
Post-Secondary Education	Allowable Expenses: Tuition, fees, and room and board for up to the next 12 months of post-secondary education (such as through a university, college, or technical school) for you, your spouse, or dependent. Note that post-secondary education expenses for education already obtained does not qualify. Documentation Required: Tuition bill or financial statement from the institution that details the actual or estimated costs, fees, and expenses. If room and board expenses are also requested, a statement from the landlord or residence hall. The dates of the semesters or educational period should be identified.
Purchase of Primary Residence	Allowable Expenses: Costs directly related to the purchase of your principal residence such as a down payment or closing costs. Mortgage payments are not eligible. Documentation Required: A statement from the mortgage company, realtor, or builder detailing the amounts of the down payment or closing costs. Commonly, this information is included in a "good faith estimate" provided by the lender. An estimated closing date should be provided.
Prevent Eviction or Foreclosure	Allowable Expenses: Amounts needed to prevent eviction from your primary residence or amounts needed to prevent foreclosure on your primary residence. Documentation Required: Current written statement or notice from landlord, bank, or mortgage company detailing amounts due necessary to prevent the eviction or foreclosure.
Health Expenses	Allowable Expenses: Cost of medical or dental expenses for you, your spouse, or dependent that is not otherwise covered by insurance. Note that elective procedures, including most orthodontics, are not eligible. Documentation Required: Recent bill or explanation of benefits (EOB) from your insurance provider identifying the portion of the expenses that are your responsibility. If upfront payment is required to obtain medical care, a statement from the provider with an estimate of the costs to the patient. Documentation should include dates of service and explanation of services provided.
Funeral Expenses	Allowable Expenses: Burial or funeral expenses for your parent, spouse, child, or dependent. Documentation Required: Statement from the funeral director or cemetery identifying the services and costs together with the deceased name, date of death, and date of funeral or burial.
Damage to Principal Residence	Allowable Expenses: Certain expenses for the repair of damage to my principal residence that would qualify for the casualty deduction under Internal Revenue Code Section 165. Documentation Required: A copy of receipts for repairs or materials to repair your principal residence, insurance claim form showing the amount not reimbursed through the insurance coverage (do not include expenses for repair or replacement of any other personal property).
